Tomia Island

PLACE TO VISIT

Around Tomia

MARI MABUK DIVE SITE
Mari Mabuk means "Let's get drunk" and is situated in the western part of Tomia close to the Roma dive site. The forms are close to a pinnacle with a variety of hard fringing reefs, especially table coral and amazing coral views on its wall. The bewitching colors of sea fans and soft corals as well as fish gave the spot its name, as divers are often so amazed they appear 'drunk' on the views. Here, you can spot many soft corals with a variety of color enriched by the presence of shoals of Yellow Tile, Grouper, Sweetlips Fish, Red Tooth Triggerfish, Snapper, and a number of ornamental fish such as Damselfish, Butterfly.

KULATI VILLAGE
Kulati is a traditional village in the eastern of Patua Fort Tomia and is reachable within 30 minutes by car or motorbike from Waha Harbor. Start your journey at the Tourism Information Center located on Kulati's hilly part, which offers jaw dropping sea scenery as far as the eyes can see paired with a stunning landscape. Besides its stunning natural sites, you can stay with the locals and experience their daily activities. Thanks to their good-hearted nature you will quickly feel bonded to the community. Learn how to cook traditional culinary, weaving, enjoy traditional dances or the join fishermen to learn the local skill of fishing. Book your activities through your tour operator or contact community based tourism of Kulati.

PATUA FORT
Patua Fort is the biggest heritage site in Wakatobi. The foundations of the old fort still remain intact. There are 3 main gates to enter the fort and upon entering you will find old graves, ruins of an old mosque, tunnels, old cannons and a big gazebo. From the top of the fort, you have a great view across the sea and the lower land of Tomia. The local people also hold many festivals and cultural events in the area of the fort.

KAHINGA PEAK
Kahianga Peak is near the highest point of Tomia, which is also celebrated as the peak of all of Wakatobi. The view of the island with its long beaches, signature mosque coconut tree forests and the small surrounding islands offers a stunning sight. This is no secret for the locals, making Kahianga their favourite for a sunset picnic. Grab some food, get on a motorbike and join them for an amazing farewell to the sun.

Binongko Island

PLACE TO VISIT

Around Tomia

SOWA VILLAGE
The blacksmiths "Tukang Besi" can be found all around the island, however the best location to meet them is Sowa Village. They traditionally create fire by fanning the flames with a self-constructed fan. The metal heats up until they can mold it to get the desired shape. The blacksmiths in Binongko are famous for their high quality "Parang" (machete). These machetes are sold all around Indonesia. You can experience the work process and even craft one yourself. It's possible for visitors to participate in a blacksmith workshop and make their own knife with the professional support of the local experts.

ONE MELANGKA BEACH
One Melangka Beach dive site has an extremely easy entry, as you it is possible to drop in at any section of this site, just around 60m away from the white sand beach. You will find the shallow water covered with colorful coral that can be seen from the surface that make this site an ideal place for snorkeling. Snorkelers often see Eagle Rays near the lip of the reef. You can access it from the beach, however, using a boat is the best way to dive in this site. There are lots of coconut tree along the beach, a perfect place to enjoy the sea breeze and sunset time.

TOPA LA BAGO
Due to the volcanic origin of the island, there are countless hidden water springs in Binongko. Near Bante you will find one of them. Just follow the ring road from Wali for 14km through the village Rukuwa to Bante village. There you can ask a local for the spring "Topa Labago". The springs in Binongko form various small caves and are all surrounded by hard volcanic rock. According to the locals in the area, Topa La Bago has already been used for hundreds of years to take a bathe and refresh after a hot day.

BUKU BEACH
Binongko is blessed with an abundant number of paradise beaches. White sand meeting the crystal clear water with palm trees in the background. If you ever get thirsty just get one hand-picked straight from the tree. One of those beautiful beaches is Buku, you can enjoy the long stretching white sand beach or snorkeling with the sea turtles in here.

Wangi - Wangi Island

PLACE TO VISIT

Around Wangi - wangi

SOMBU

Sombu is the most popular diving and snorkeling spot in Wangi-Wangi and is reachable within 20 minutes from the town of Wanci by car. Because of this accessibility it is frequently dived. The entry point is a long jetty. From there, you can just take a giant step and jump straight into the sea. During the right season the vibrant colors of the corals and fish are visible from the jetty. During weekends or late afternoons Sombu is a popular place for local youngsters to hang out and enjoy the sunset while sipping the coffee at the small café near parking area.

CEMARA BEACH

This long white-sand beach is the perfect place to relax and swim. Cemara reef is also a favorite diving and snorkeling point in Wangi-Wangi with Open Water Diving Course occasionally conducted here. Weekend is the busiest time of the week as locals come to relax and swim while enjoying grilled fish, fried bananas and fresh coconuts. Cemara beach is close to the village of Waha around 7km away from Wanci.

NIGHT MARKET/MARINA

As soon as the sun is setting, the night market in Wanci comes to life. It offers a great choice of the freshest seafood, vegetables and fruits. You can see the day's catch spread out on wooden tables. A wide variety of snapper, tuna, barracuda, crabs and the foodies delight, sea urchins, are all for sale. In front of the market, grilled fish and a variety of traditional dishes are prepared for you to enjoy on the spot or to take away. The night market is located at Marina Bay close to the Ferry Harbor, a 5 minute walk to the north of the Kantor Bupati. It opens around 4pm in the afternoon.

LIYA TOGO

One of the best locations to experience the island's cultural heritage up close is the village of Liya Togo in the south of Wangi-Wangi. The inhabitants of this village have preserved their traditional values and rituals for decades and live their lives accordingly. Book your day trip to Liya Togo through community based tourism in the business listing and enjoy various activity with the community of Liya such as walking tour, canoeing, cooking class and cultural trip.

TRAVEL TIPS

Getting Around

Exploring the island is quite feasible by renting a car or motorbike. Ojek or motorbike taxi for a shorter distance is also available in public places such as the harbor or market. We recommend you arranging the transportation with your tour operator or car rent association at the airport.

Inter-Island Public Transportation

As Wakatobi consists of four main islands, the only way to get around is by boat. Be advised that the departure schedule usually depends on weather condition. The boat may not operate due to high tides.

Money

In Wakatobi, transactions are cash-based and only Indonesian Rupiah (IDR) are accepted. Credit cards are not commonly used except at few larger resorts. Foreign currency exchange service is available at Bank BNI in Wangi-Wangi with minimum exchange amount of US$ 1,000.

Bank and ATM

There are two banks in Wakatobi located in Wangi-Wangi at the town of Wanci. The first bank is BNI with two ATMs in Wanci which accept VISA and Master Card transactions. The second is BRI which accepts only Master Card. When visiting islands other than Wangi-Wangi, be sure to bring enough cash since there is no banks or ATMs available outside Wangi-Wangi.

PLACE TO VISIT

Around Kaledupa

HOGA ISLAND

Hoga is a small island located roughly 15 minutes by boat from Kaledupa. Beyond its postcard perfect island paradise features, it has become popular among researchers from Operation Wallacea, who journey to Hoga twice a year to study its amazing marine diversity. The island is blessed with white sand beaches, shady coconut groves and a beautiful reef perfect for extended snorkeling and diving sessions. There are no roads or vehicles on the island, just one very small village on the northern end. Whether you enjoy the beach life, lazing about in your hammock or getting in as many dives as possible, Hoga has it all.

BAJO SAMPELA AND MANTIGOLA

There are two big Bajo villages around Kaledupa Island. Most visited by tourist is Sampela, also known as Sama Bahari, is a traditional Bajo village that rises out of the ocean around 3km off the Kaledupa mainland. Several thousand inhabitants live in its traditional wooden stilt houses, which are built on a coral stone base. While Mantigola, the oldest Bajo Village in the area is rarely visited by tourists. Mantigola is perhaps the most traditional among the local Bajo settlements, and for visitors it can seem like traveling back in time. The smell of the ocean mixed with that of fish and smoke is characteristic of the village.

PA JAM WEAVING VILLAGE

The area of Pajam is home to the traditional villages of Palea and Jameraka. Located up in the hills, the area offers majestic views over the island. It was the site of the island's first settlement and still serves as the cultural centre of Limbo Langge today. Pajam is known for its sarongs, and many women can be seen, hard at work, weaving the cloth in their homes. The ancient art form has been passed down from generation to generation, with mothers teaching their daughters from an early age.

TANOMEHA

Tanomeha is a village as part of Limbo Langge area which can be reached within 30 minutes from Ambeua Harbor by car or motorbike. Exploring the sea of Limbo Langge can be done by renting a boat in Langge Harbor and cruising between the small islands. Some islands consist of rocks with small villages along the coast, others are unpopulated with frangipani trees growing on the stone and yellow crested cockatoos flying around. Cruising between the small islands where mangroves grow along the coast is the best things to do in this area. Visit a small Bajo Village named Lohoa which looks like it is floating on the sea.
